

What is a Special Enrollment Period?

- A Special Enrollment Period is a time outside of Open Enrollment Period when a customer and their family maybe eligible to sign up for health coverage
- In Washington Healthplanfinder, customers may qualify for a special enrollment period 60 days following the date of a qualifying life event
- Special enrollment periods apply to customers seeking coverage in Qualified health and dental plans not Washington Apple Health (Medicaid)
 - Apple Health has year round Open Enrollment
 - Apple Health enrolled customers can also change their Managed Care Plan year round

Qualifying Life Events

- An individual/family may qualify by experiencing one of the events below

The special conditions that qualify for special enrollment periods change from time to time due to federal and state policy changes, and may vary with complex scenarios (qualifying for more than one event)

Hierarchy of Qualifying Life Events

- For customers reporting multiple qualifying life events, Washington Healthplanfinder will follow a hierarchy to determine the earliest possible start date for the customer

Please Come Back During Open Enrollment

Based on the information you provided, you do not meet the requirements for a Special Enrollment Period due one or more of the following reasons:

- You did not report a qualifying life event for Special Enrollment
- The event was not reported within 60 days
- The address you moved to doesn't qualify you for a loss of current coverage or provide new plan options

You can continue to report qualifying life events throughout the year to be evaluated for a Special Enrollment Period. You can also return to Washington Healthplanfinder during the next Qualified Health Plan Open Enrollment Period from November 1, 2015 to January 31, 2016 to enroll in coverage.
